COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 7.

THE home telegrams received to-day are devoid of anything of an exciting nature. Consols are ⅛ higher at 100⅛. French Rentes unchanged at 121¼. Enfaced Rupee Paper ⅛ lower at 84⅜ for fours and 91½ for fours-and-a-half.

In the general produce markets there is no change, and metals are all as last quoted.

Piece-goods in Manchester are reported steady, and the Liverpool cotton market closed firm at unchanged prices, the day's sales being estimated at 10,000 bales, of which 600 were Surats. In New York ready Mid. Uplandsare unalteredat 10⅞cents, but July shipment has advanced from 10·84 to 10·90 cents per lb., notwithstanding continued liberal receipts at the ports. The figures to date give the following comparisons :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Wednesday's receipts	10,000	6,000	5,000
Five days' do.	57,000	27,000	30,000
Total since 1st Sept.	5,113,000	4,533,000	4,189,000

At the weekly biddings for council drafts on India in London yesterday Rs. 35,70,000 were allotted on Calcutta and Rs. 9,30,000 on Bombay, tenders at that rate receiving 37 per cent. This was lower than was generally anticipated here yesterday, and although Bar Silver still comes at 52d., we opened this morning with a decline of quite 1-16d., a considerable business being done in 3 months' credits at 1s. 8 3-32d. During the afternoon, however, the Banks showed more willingness to sell and a recovery of 1-32d. took place, the market closing steady at the following quotations :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 27-32d.	per rupee.
Do. telegraphic	1s. 7 15-16d.	,,
Do. 3 months' sight	1s. 7 31-32d.	,,
Credits, 3 ,, ,,	1s. 8 1d.	,,
Documents, 3 ,, ,,	1s. 8 5-32d.	,,
Francs, 3 ,, ,,	2f. 13⅜ to 1c.	,,

On Calcutta we still quote demand drafts at 1-16 to ⅛ per cent. premium ; 60 days' sight ⅜ per cent. discount.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has ruled quiet, and so far as we can learn only a limited business has been done. Fours we quote at Rs. 102¼ ; Fours-and-a-half Rs. 109½.

SHARES are quiet. Bank of Bombays are firm at an advance of ¼ per cent., the quotation now being Rs. 747½. Spinning and Weaving Mill shares are dull, and in some cases Rs. 10 lower. Colaba Land shares are Rs. 5 higher at Rs. 870 ; Port Cannings Rs. 2½ higher at Rs. 205. In Press Companies we note a decline of Rs. 50 in Apollo and an advance of like amount in Fort Press.

COTTON continues quite stagnant. The slight advance in American futures rendered sellers more firm for a time, but buyers declining to pay any advance, the market settled down to yesterday's figures, and very little business resulted. Arrivals continue light.

SEEDS and WHEAT show no practical change, although the demand is active and prices very firm.

FREIGHTS continue to show a hardening tendency, and for Liverpool 35s. is now asked for ready and 37s. 6d. for May loading. Other ports show no change.

PIECE-GOODS have not altered in any way. The demand is still very slack, and rates are easier daily.

COALS are steady at previous prices, some small sales of Davison's alongside being reported at Rs. 15½ per ton.

We see from Messrs. Thomas Watson and Company's tea report that the quantity of Indian tea exported from Calcutta in March last was 492,679 lbs. as compared with 1,035,503 lbs. exported in March last year.

The Bengal Council adjourned on Saturday last sine die after one of the shortest sessions on record, having only continued in sessions for about six weeks, during which period six sittings were held and six Acts passed.

After a long discussion it has been decided that Delhi is to construct its proposed water works, and Mr. Leslie Clarke, in charge of the now nearly completed Lahor water-works, is to undertake the duty of carrying out the scheme.

As soon as the evacuation of Kandahar has been completed (the Englishman says) it is expected that Colonel St. John will take the place of Major Reynolds as Agent to the Governor-General in Beluchistan.

A new list of gentlemen "appointed to act as Justices of the Peace within the limits of the town of Bombay" is published in the Government Gazette "in supersession of all previous orders for the appointment of Justices in the said town."

The Bombay season reports for the week ended the 30th ultimo state that heavy rain in Southern Mahratta Country has been injurious to the cotton crops. The prospects unchanged otherwise. Public health is fair except in Sind, where fever, smallpox, and measles prevail.

Colonel E. A. Green, Assistant Adjutant-General, Army Head-Quarters, has been appointed to Colonel Wardrop's old post of Deputy Adjutant-General, and Captain (Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel) C. J. Burnett, 2-15th Foot, Assistant Adjutant-General of the division, gets the office vacated by Colonel Green.

Instructions, the Pioneer believes, are now being sent to General Hume at Kandahar, in reply to a question asked by him a few days ago, as to the final disposal of the troops under his command. He will be told what regiments are to remain in and about Quetta, and what are to be sent back to India.

The Englishman's correspondent at Edwardesabad telegraphed on April 3 :—"The troops concentrating at Tank have been delayed by heavy rain. The 21st P. N. I. are added to the reserve brigade. A report is current that the reserve column under General Gordon is to advance via the Khussore Pass to Makin. The Rifle Brigade arrived at Kohat yesterday. General Kennedy leaves for Tank to-morrow."

There seems to be a great deal of justice, the Englishman remarks, in the complaint that the Bombay Army has been almost entirely ignored in the allotment of the Afghan honours. "As the Bombay Gazette lately pointed out, not one Captain of the Bombay Staff Corps is included in the list, and only two Majors find a place in it. Yet, whatever doubt may attach to the value of the services rendered by the Bombay Army as a whole, there can be none as to the conspicuous merits of those rendered by many of its officers individually."

Yesterday's Bombay Government Gazette states :—"With reference to G. O. No. 139, dated 2nd March, 1881, cancelling the appointment of Colonel (then Brigadier-General) G. R. S. Burrows to the Brigade Staff, Lieutenant-Colonel (Brevet Colonel) A. Carnegy, Staff Corps, now officiating on the Brigade Staff with the rank of Brigadier-General, is confirmed as a Brigadier on the establishment."

The Kandahar News says that while returning to the citadel from camp, Lieut. Alban, Staff Officer of Transport, was fired at by some budmashes near the N. W. Bastion of the city. The first shot was fired from the right; then two flashes in the pan from the left. Some Transport sergeants on hearing the shots came out of the Field Transport Lines and were also fired at. Lieut. Alban with Lieuts. Ford and Sherer, of the Transport, with a party of dismounted sowars and transport sergeants, tried to discover the perpetrators of this daring outrage, but the night was too dark and the villains got away.

The Kandahar News states that Sirdar Abdoola Khan and Oomar Jan Sahibzada, the emissaries of Ayoub Khan, who arrived here some three weeks ago, left Kandahar on Thursday morning. They were escorted from the city by a company of the 9th Regiment N.I. along the Kokeran Road, who were relieved half way by a party of cavalry from the Kokeran Brigade. Hundreds of the inhabitants were hanging on to the skirts of the Sahibzada, and followed him along the road kissing his hands, feet, and the hem of his garments.

The following notification appears in yesterday's Bombay Government Gazette :—It is hereby notified for general information that under Section 4 of Bombay Act I. of 1874 His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council is pleased to sanction the extension of the tramway line by the Bombay Tramway Company, Limited, from the head of Abdul Rahman Street to a point near the Grant Road Railway Station, passing through the company's own land into Bapu Khote Street, thence by Erskine Road, Falkand Road, and Grant Road to the proposed terminus, subject to the conditions imposed by the Municipal Commissioner for the City of Bombay.

The Englishman understands that it has at length been definitely settled that Kohima is to be the site for a permanent civil and military station in the Naga Hills. The Government has in short decided at last to occupy the Anjami country, and Kohima is to be the future capital. This decision of the Government, our contemporary remarks, will ease the minds of the military and civil officers, and enable them to locate themselves comfortably in a climate preferable to Simla or Masuri. The vacillation of the Government in settling the question of holding or abandoning the Naga Hills has led to many difficulties and much discontent; but officers and troops will now be able to make good arrangements for their own comfort in what has hitherto been a very inhospitable situation.

There are so many Hassans, Hashims, and Hassims amongst men who have taken and are likely to take prominent positions in Afghan affairs, that confusion is apt to arise. A contemporary explains that the Hashim Khan, who goes to Kandahar as the Ameer Abdul Rahman's Governor, is the son of the late Ameer Azim Khan. He is the man who was with General Watson; his father Azim was the well-known son of Dost Mohomed, and his mother a woman of the Turi tribe. Hashim Khan, number two, is the son of Sherif Khan, the political detenu. He was with us in Kabul; and afterwards, going over to the opposition, was made Governor of Furrah by his uncle Ayoub after the battle of Kandahar. Neither of these must be confounded with Hassan, the ex-Governor of Jellalabad, who is said to be fighting against Ayoub Khan.

The principle which has guided the Government in selecting the troops for the Waziri Expedition, seems to have been that those should be employed who did not see active service during the late war. Thus the 4th Sikhs have been taken and the 2nd and 3rd left, and the 5th is the one Punjab Native Infantry Regiment passed over. As to the 32nd Pioneers, both the Pioneer regiments had their fill of hard work in Afghanistan; but of the two the 23rd had the hardest, hence we may conjecture the selection. It is supposed that the Waziris will probably offer a show of resistance at Pulloseem, but will make their real stand in the Barara defile; following, in fact, tactics similar to those of 1860. It is not expected for a moment that the affair will be a walk-over for the troops.

A letter to a contemporary from Bushire, March 19th, states:—"The event of the week has been the arrival of Admiral Gore-Jones, in H. M. S. Euryalus. The flagship was sighted on the evening of Thursday, the 17th. Colonel Ross, H. M.'s Consul-General and Political Resident, accompanied by Colonel Miles, H. M.'s Consul at Muscat; Captain MacIvor, Assistant Resident; Doctor Ross, Civil Surgeon, and Mr. Robert Paul, of the firm of Messrs. Gray, Paul & Co., proceeded on board to welcome His Excellency. A salute of 13 guns was fired from the Euryalus for the Political Resident. This salute was responded to by one from the Persian guns, evidently under the supposition that the salute was meant for the Shah's flag. On the morning of the 18th H. M. S. Euryalus fired a royal salute for the Shah's flag. Immediately afterwards the Admiral landed opposite the Residency, and was received with marked attention by the local authorities—escorts, led-horses, a salute from the Governor's battery, &c. The Admiral was met at the landing by Colonel Ross, Colonel Miles, and the Residency staff, passing the whole way to the Residency through lines of the Persian Infantry."

Colonel Malleson, C.S.I., made a flying visit to India last December. With regard to the visit and its results, the Madras Mail notes :—"From Bombay he went to Secunderabad, and, for all we know to the contrary, from Secunderabad he went 'back again' to Bombay and London. Since then he has favoured the home public freely with his version of native opinion on the Kandahar question. Speaking on the 5th ultimo at a public meeting in London, the Colonel stated that 'when he went to India a short time ago he never supposed that the Government would do so insane a thing as to abandon Kandahar, seeing how greatly our rule in India depended on our prestige; but it would be difficult to exaggerate the panic that fell upon the natives when first they heard of the intended evacuation of the place by our troops. In fact, natives had plainly told him that the Government were about to give up the safe-guard against Russia just at the time when Russia was advancing against us. Indians judged our rule mostly by its results, and the consequence would be that when ever the enemy approached our borders we should have to repress a rebellion among the natives.' It would interest a good many people to learn the number of the natives with whom the Colonel discussed the subject when he was in India. Certainly the Indian Press has been successfully kept in ignorance of the 'panic' that 'fell upon the natives' to which the Colonel alludes."

We are informed that the British Government have recently decided to charge an annual rent of Rs. 5 an acre on all lands leased for gold mining purposes instead of levying a tax on the industry. The Kaiser-i-Hind Gold Mining Company, Limited, have, it is stated, secured a similar concession from the Mysore Government, but with the option of paying a royalty of 5 per cent. on the value of all the gold and other minerals extracted in lieu of rent. The company is given one year's time to decide which of the two alternatives it prefers adopting. This arrangement seems very beneficial to the interest of the shareholders. The Kaiser-i-Hind Company appears to be going ahead in a business-like manner. The necessary legal formalities for completing the sub-lease of the property are, we understand, nearly completed. Major Strutt, one of the directors of the company, proceeded to England in February last, and has since written to the effect that he has completed arrangements with the eminent mining firm of Messrs. Taylor and Sons, of London, for securing an experienced mining captain, an efficient staff of miners, and as chemical assayist. The purchase of machinery was also being considered, and as Messrs. Taylor and Sons have already erected machinery for the Mysore Gold Mining Company, which is expected to commence crushing operations in a few weeks, the experience thus gained will no doubt be of great value to the Kaiser-i-Hind Company. We are, furthermore, informed that since the recent spurt in London in favour of Indian Gold Mining shares, a telegram has been received to the effect that hopes were entertained of selling half of the Company's property in London at a considerable profit, the value of auriferous land in the Colar district having risen greatly since the company's property was contracted for in November last.

The Statesman thinks "there will be no disappointment in India if the rumoured Cabinet changes which are expected to put the Earl of Derby into the place of Lord Hartington as Indian Secretary come about. The rumour has much of probability in it. That Lord Derby had been provided a year ago to take a seat in a Liberal Cabinet, we believe he would then have been offered—and it is possible that he was offered—the post of Secretary of State for India. The appointment would be a welcome one, for, without disparagement to the Marquis of Hartington, it may be said that his knowledge of India is infinitely little when compared with Lord Derby's. The latter nobleman has already been twice officially connected with this country. He was Under-Secretary of State for India in his father's administration, nearly thirty years ago, and he was Secretary of State for India, again under his father as Premier, in 1858-59. Having charge of Indian affairs at that important epoch, when the administration of this country was transferred from the Company to the Crown, he gained a masterly grasp of Indian questions which he has never lost. His speech in the course of the Kandahar debate the other day in the House of Lords shows that he holds remarkably just and wise views on Indian questions. His cautious temperament, which may perhaps rather tend to unfit him for some public offices, appears to us to be a strong recommendation to the post of Secretary of State for India. It is the least of his qualifications that he paid a visit to India in 1852, but yet a man who has seen India with his own eyes, however cursorily, is generally speaking, likely to take a more active and intelligent interest in the country than one who has not."

In answering Sir David Wedderburn's question about the disposal of Cetewayo, Mr. Grant Duff said the ex-King of the Zulus would be allowed four or more wives—the number to be settled between the Cape Government and the Government of Natal. This is a funny way of disposing of a deposed monarch.

The Constantinople correspondent of a London paper says that the desire of the Turks is for a peaceful settlement, in consequence of the dread of risings in various parts of the Empire. The Kurds are stated by the Turkish papers to be preparing a great rising for the spring.

The Irish World, the organ of the more turbulent and Communistic wing of the Land League organization, announces that it sent to Ireland the week before the last mail left £1,200; that the total receipts for the League fund were over £14,000, and that it expected by St. Patrick's Day the fund would reach £20,000. It also states that sixty-five new branches of the League had been organized during the week, making a total in America of 919.

Colonel Prejevalsky, the well-known Russian traveller, who returned to St. Petersburg towards the end of last year, is about to retire to his family estate at Smolensk for the purpose of devoting himself to a work descriptive of his recent travels. These will include not only his last attempt to reach Lhasa and his exploration of the upper course of the Hoangho River, but also his journey to Zob Nor in 1876-77.

The officers who lately accompanied Sir Samuel Rowe to the Gold Coast on special service are to be allowed to remain on the Coast at Sir Samuel Rowe's discretion, nothwithstanding that all danger of an Ashanti attack on the British settlements is removed. They are to be employed in making such arrangements as will guard against future alarm, and it has been decided that they shall be paid out of Colonial funds, and shall draw special allowances whilst absent from England, according to the nature of the duties they may be called upon to perform.

The works for the proposed tunnel from Dover to Calais have made such satisfactory progress that its promoters—Colonel Beaumont, R. E., and Captain English, R. E.—are now able to employ three shifts of men constantly throughout the twenty-four hours; and are sanguine of being able to bore about 30ft. per day when all the machinery is perfected. At present two drills worked by engines driven by compressed air are at work, and about thirty labourers are employed. The bore is 7ft. in diameter, and the soil chalk. It is so firm that the engineers are of the opinion no brick or cement work will be required to shore it up. Hitherto the difficulty they have had to contend with has arisen from the quantity of water which has found its way into the cutting, and which has been pumped up by means of a powerful engine placed at the mouth of the shaft leading into the tunnel. This shaft is about 300ft. long, and the boring already accomplished upwards of 500ft. A new shaft is being driven through Shakespeare Cliff, which, when completed, will be about 200ft. in depth, and this will enable several additional hands to be employed, and the work to progress much more rapidly than at present.

RACING AT KANDAHAR.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

The first day's racing took place according to programme, and quite came up to expectation. The winners were not spotted quite so easily as might have been expected in a place where all the animals were pretty well known, and in at least two races the apple-cart was upset with a vengeance. The course was in first-rate order, and the jumps were as fair as could be expected, seeing that the greater part of the course had to strike the happy mean between being of that class which would make the horses jump and of that which would make the ponies tumble. One at least was very big for ponies, but they were all soft enough to prevent a hit being necessarily a fall, and though there were three "griefs" during the day no one was hurt seriously, horse or man. The post-and-rails, though they looked very nice when they were up, were rather of the consistency of the Irishman's point, "if ye didn't cough or sneeze" in their vicinity they were all right, and the horses seemed to be fully aware of the fact, for they ran through them with an easy familiarity which made one thankful they hadn't got to carry their owners across a stiff English county the next day.

Sir Kenneth, a neat looking chestnut Arab of Dr. Stewart's, struck me as the prettiest fencer, though Zulu, a grey waler of Mr. Watson's seemed more conscientious about clearing his jumps. Perhaps the former boasted some such acquaintance with them as the horse of a well-known gallant colonel of the R. H. A., who is reported to have rammed a big English horse, who, he knew, wouldn't rise an inch at a post-and-rails, and, as he crashed through it, turned in his saddle and said: "Cunning beggar, he new it was rotten."

Among the ponies—Begum, well-known in Bombay as the property of the former popular Gymkhana Secretary, may be looked upon as the most mentionable, for though she was unfortunate in her chase she won easily on the flat, and even in the former would probably have pulled off her race but for her want of previous acquaintance with the appearance of a "hurdle" in a steeple-chase course.

The first race was to have begun at one o'clock, according to the programme, but, probably owing to the unusual heat of the day, didn't take place till nearer two, and most of the races were run in sun-hats to the detriment of the general appearance of the jockeys. There was a fair show of colours, but "tops" were scarce; indeed, I was surprised to see any, for they are an inconvenient item in an 80lb. kit, and would scarcely be improved by being worn on the march up.

The last race was over well before dark; in fact there was light enough for a diversion on the way back in the way of a "wolf-chase," in which the spears, which are carried by most officers out of cantonments, came in handy. The beast had evidently paid a midday visit to the graves near the citadel from his mountain haunts beyond the race-course, and had reckoned on his usually undisturbed "line of retreat" in the afternoon. The programme of the races had evidently not been circulated in wolfdom; he was cut off by the unusual flow of people from cantonments at such an early hour in the afternoon, and, trying to make for his lair as they were dispersing, paid for his day's outing with his life, falling a victim to the spear of Mr. Alsopp.

The Indian Stakes, Country-bred, Galloway Stakes for 14 hands and under. Weight for inches. To carry 10st. 7lbs. Winners once 7lbs.; twice 10lbs.; thrice or oftener 14lbs. extra. ¾ mile. Entrance Rs. 10.

Colonel Auchinleck's Baron, 10-4, Mr. Lang 1
Mr. Shaw's No Nam, 10-4, Mr. Preston 2
Captain Radcliffe's Nuseeb, 10-4, Mr. Minchin 3
Mr. Jardine's Blackieg, 10, Captain Raucliffe 0
Mr. Lundy's Don Juan, 10-7 0

No Name got away with in good lead, and kept it round the turn, but Baron, the favourite, well ridden by Mr. Lang, pulled up on him in the straight and won as he liked; Nuseeb a fair third.

The Judges' Cup.—For all ponies 13 hands and under. 13 hands to carry 10 st. 7lbs. Penalties 5, 7, and 10lbs. extra for one, two, or three wins. ½ mile. Entrance Cr. 5.

Mr. Burrows's Fawn, 10-3, Mr. Tully 1
Captain Radcliffe's Bob, 10-4, Mr. Preston 2
Major Keyser's The Ghost, 9-5, Mr. Minchin 3
Mr. Lang's Frisky, 10-7, Owner 0

The Ghost led round the corner, and did his best to keep it up the straight, followed by Frisky, Fawn, and Bob, the last some little way behind, but Fawn came past Frisky and The Ghost half way in, and Bob, who was well ridden by Mr. Preston, came through his horses soon after in splendid style, and did his best to save the race, but the Fawn had it well in hand, and passed the post a length or two ahead without difficulty.

The Evacuation Cup.—Races for all horses. Weight for age and class raised 2 stone. Winners' penalties same as No. 1. ¼ mile. Entrance Rs. 10.

Captain Whiteford's Jim, 11-4, Captain Haydon 1
Captain Christie's Baroness, 11-1, Mr. Hawkins 2
Mr. Bunbury's Jim Jam, 10-3, Mr. Wymgard 3

Jim took the lead almost from the start, and increased it gradually, and, though he was going perceptibly lame during the race, won easily, scarcely extending himself the whole way. Mr. Bunbury's horse, a young ster of whom great things were expected, was a c mplete failure, but is supposed to have been an ass.

The Pony Steeple-chase.—For all ponies 13-2 and under. 13-2 to carry 10st. 7lbs.; 4 lbs. allowed for every inch under. Penalties as in No. 2. 1¼ miles. Entrance Rs. 5.

Mr. Noble's Cripple, 10-7 1
Mr. Watson's Sambo, 10-7, Mr. Philpotts 2
Mr. Alsopp's Rosslynn, 10-5, Mr. Wymgard 3
Mr. Young's Begum, 10-12, Dr. Stewart 0
Mr. Macintyre's Tim, 10-7 0

Rosslynn and Begum were the most fancied for this race, and the calculations of many were upset by the result, for Rosslynn, who was held back at his first jump and cleared it behind the others in good style, was not held straight at his second jump, and came down, and though his rider was up again very soon, he failed to make up his lost ground. Begum, too, came down at the third jump, and though her rider was on again almost before he was off, and was picking up the others in good style, she baulked at the last jump, a hurdle, and only came in just behind Rosslynn, the Cripple coming in first, followed by Sambo. The Laird baulked at his first jump and was called off.

The Signal-Tower Plate.—For all Arabs and Country-breds. Steeple-chase 2 inches.

Dr. Stewart's Sir Kenneth, 11-7, Owner 1
Mr. Tully's Telescope, 11-7, Owner 2
Mr. Barne's Blue Bell, 11-7, Mr. Daunt 3
Mr. Minchin's John Brown, 9, Owner 0
Mr. Bartleiot's Wizard, 11-7, Owner 0
Captain Cuthell's Miss Brab, 11 0

Dr. Stewart's horse, ridden by his sporting owner, led over the first jump, and knocking the post-and-rails well with his knees, sent them flying, an example followed by the rest, where there were any left to knock. Sir Kenneth kept his lead all the way round, jumping in beautiful form and well-ridden, Telescope keeping pretty close behind, and Blue Bell not far in his wake, and although Telescope did his best to come up at the finish he failed to change the order. John Brown came in behind Blue Bell, and Wizard brought up the rear. Miss Brab did not appear at the starting-post, her owner having mistaken the day on which she was to run.

The Staff Cup.—Steeplechase for all horses. Weight for age and class raised 3 stone. Winner's penalties as for No. 1. 2 miles. Entrance Rs. 10.

Mr. Watson's Zulu, 12-11, Owner 1
Mr. Barne's Beeswing, 12-11, Owner 2
Captain Christie's Baroness, 12-4, Mr. Hawkins 3
Captain Whiteford's Norma, 12-11, Captain Ewart 0
Mr. Hunt's Zarina, 12-4, Smithson 0

As in the previous race, the winner led all the way, jumping well and big, followed by Zarina, Baroness, and Beeswing, Norma galloping and jumping heavily in the rear. Zarina came to grief, or her rider did, at the far jump from the stand, and Zulu, increasing his lead, won easily from Baroness, Beeswing coming in third rather done, and Norma conscientiously plodding on in the rear.

The Arabian Plate.—For all Arabs that have never won on the flat at Kandahar. Winners of any race down country. Penalties as for Nos. 1 and 6. Galloways allowed 7lbs. Weight for age. 6 years to carry 10st. 7lbs. One mile flat. Entrance Rs. 10.

Captain Haydon's Roostum, 10-4, Mr. Minchin 1
Dr. Stewart's Sir Kenneth, 11-3, Owner 2
Mr. Tully's Nawab, 9-11, Owner 3
Captain Grant's Belocchi, 10-7, Mr. Preston 0
Major Keyser's Joo, 10-4, Mr. Hunt 0
Mr. Manser's Syed, 10-1, Mr. Bartleiot 0
Mr. Marriott's Glencoe, 10-7 0
Mr. Preston's Sir Richard, 10-7, Mr. Lang 0

The two chestnuts and Nawab came ahead of the others almost directly, and Captain Haydon's little horse gained gradually on Sir Kenneth, who had already done his duty during the day and won with not much to spare, Nawab a fair third, followed by Syed, Joo, Sir Richard, and the two greys.

The Steward's Cup.—For all ponies 3-2 and under. Conditions as for No. 4. ¾ mile flat. Entrance Rs. 5.

Mr. Young's Begum, 10-9, Dr. Stewart 1
Mr. Burrows's Fawn, 9-5, Mr. Tully 2
Mr. Macintyre's The Laird, 10-7 3
Mr. Anderson's Shaitan, 10-3, Owner 0
Mr. Bunbury's Lady Sarah, 10-4, Mr. Wymgard 0
Mr. Graham's Sally, 10-4, Mr. Lang 0
Capt. Forin's Zazelle, 10-4, Mr. Hunt 0
Mr. Allsopp's Rosslynn, 10-7 0
Mr. Baden Powell's Bill, Owner 0
Mr. Minchin's Frailty, late Turquois, Owner 0

With such a crowd of starters it was impossible to follow the race closely, but Begum, who was on the outside and had a good man on her back, jumped away a couple of lengths in front and kept it all the way. The rest were pretty well together round the corner, except Lady Sarah, who was well in rear, but there was a considerable falling off up the straight, Fawn coming in second to Begum, The Laird third. Rosslynn did not come to the post, having sustained a slight damage in his former race.

ICI ON PARLE ANGLAIS.

I sing of the dance with its maze of light feet in their wildness,
Of dance that we danced in the sultry heat of the summer,
Bright were the rooms of reception of past Ornamentals,
Swift the soft tread of the Hindu with ice-creams beladen.
Mem-sahibs fat, fair, and forty with heels energetic;
Mis-sahib lissome and lithe as a wand of the willow;
Captains, and colonels, and majors with wealth of mustachios,
Whirled in a tangle of mazes like tossings of billows.
Silent and sad sat a maiden of summers uncertain
On the edge of the wild, rustling sea with its dances intricate;
Dark was the blood in the veins of the sorrowful maiden,
Tinged with a dash of the white very light in proportion.
Passed the tall captains, fat majors, and colonels in silence,
Stroked their mustaches with smiles and a hidden derision,
Whispered the time-ancient joke to fair ears now reluctant,
Cavorted gaily away in the arms of the lissome mis-sahibs.
Slowly at last came a steward of courteous demeanour,
Rolled an unctuous smile and smoothing the paunch of his waistcoat:
"Fair maid, can I get thee a partner to whirl in the mazy ?"
"I cannot dance," said the maiden of summers uncertain.
Staggered the steward like bull-calf struck down by the hammer,
Oilily smiled with an oath surging up from his waistcoat,
Bubblingly rolled to the room of the spirituous liquors,
Drank the deep peg in his wrath and smote down the Hindu innoxious.
Swiftly the hours whirled away in the pulsings of pleasure,
Again came the steward breathing the balm of politeness;
Again the soft, whisp'ring murmur so mellowed liquescent,
"I cannot dance," from the lips of the sorrowful maiden.
Ceased has the whirl of the dance and the laugh of the dancers,
Still is the tremulous flute and the screech of the violin silent;
Captains and majors with mis-sahibs in promenade lengthening
Seek the cool lawns 'neath the silvery flash of the moonshine.
Tender the words of the steward with B and S moistened,
"Fair maid, let us walk in the shadowy cool of the moonshine,"
With a petulent toss of the head and a knitting of eyebrows,
Thus that sorrowful maid of summers uncertain made answer :—
"Arré bapré ! kaheko dik deta ho ?
Ham do dafa boldya ki 'I cannot dance,'
Phir dik mat karo !"

Mr. J. C. Moir, the second engineer of the s. s. The police are making inquiries.

Births and Deaths in Bombay.—The total number of deaths registered during the week ending Tuesday, 5th April, was 419, being 25 less than in the previous week, and less than the week ending 6th April, 1880, and 152 less than the mean of the corresponding period in the preceding five years. During the week 304 births were reported in the different districts of the city. The rate of mortality per 1,000 of the population per annum was 32·76. There were 108 deaths from remittent fever, being 6 more than the previous week, and 87 less than in the same period last year. The deaths from diseases to the respiratory system, diarrhœa, and dysentery were last week 82, 20, and 11, respectively, as compared with 99, 12, and 17 last year. The following remark is appended by the Health Officer to his return :—"As there is no allowance made for the increase of population, natural and extraordinary, among recent years, the percentages of mortality are unduly high."

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—During piercing winds and excessive variations of temperature every one is more or less liable to internal and external disease. Throat, chest, liver, bowels, kidneys, and skin all sufferin some degree, and may be relieved by rubbing in this Ointment, aided by proper doses of the Pills, for administering which full directions accompany each box: in truth, any one who thoroughly masters Holloway's instructions will, in remedying disease, exchange the labour of an hour for the profit of a lifetime. All bronchial, pulmonary, and throat disorders require that the Ointment should be thoroughly well rubbed upon the skin twice a-day with great regularity, considerable briskness, and much persistence.

THE MALCOLMSON COURT-MARTIAL.

A general court-martial assembled at the Mess House of the 25th N. I., Marine Lines, yesterday morning for the trial of Colonel J. H.T. Malcolmson, C.B., Commandant 3rd Sind Horse.

President: Brigadier-General C. T. Aitchison C. B., Staff Corps (Commanding Bombay District).

Members: Lieutenant-Colonel Hadow, R. A.; Lieutenant-Colonel (Brevet Colonel) G. F. Hogg, S.C. (Commandant 12th N. I.); Lieutenant-Colonel (Brevet Colonel) J. Blair, V. C., Bombay Cavalry (Commandant 1st Bombay Lancers); Colonel C. E. Oldershaw, C.B., Royal Artillery (Commanding Royal Artillery, Mhow Division), Colonel A. H. Dawson, Royal Artillery (Commanding Royal Artillery Bombay District), Lieutenant-Colonel (Brevet Colonel) A. G. Pioner, S. C. (Commandant 17th Regiment N. I.); Lieutenant-Colonel P. A. A. Twynam (Commanding 2-15th Foot); Major (Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel) C. McPherson (Commanding 2-17th Foot); Lieutenant-Colonel C. J. Anderson, S. C. (2nd in Command 1st Bombay Lancers); Major (Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel) S. Boulderson (17th Lancers).

Lieutenant-Colonel C. M. Ducat, Deputy Judge Advocate, Mhow Circle, attended the court as Judge Advocate, and conducted the proceedings.

Major F. C. Ruxton, 20th Foot, prosecuted.

Mr. Inverarity, Barrister, and Mr. Crawford (Crawford and Boevy) watched the proceedings on behalf of Colonel Malcolmson.

Colonel Malcolmson.—Before my trial commences I wish to make a few remarks, a very short statement relating more to the absence of witnesses for my defence than anything else.

The President.—I think it will be more appropriate if you make your statement after the prosecution is closed.

Col. Malcolmson.—Very well, Sir.

The charges were as follows :—

Lieutenant-Colonel and Brevet Colonel John Henry Porter Malcolmson, C.B., of the Bombay Staff Corps, Commandant of the 3rd Regiment Sind Horse, placed in arrest and charged :—

First Charge.—With misbehaviour before the enemy in such manner as to show cowardice, on the 27th and 28th of July, 1880, during the retreat from field of battle at Maiwand, in Afghanistan, in the following instances :—

First.—In having at the commencement of the retreat near Khusk-i-Nakhud, while Brigadier-General Nuttall was with the rear guard employed in placing wounded and tired men on horses and camels, proposed to retire at once, assigning as a reason that he saw a strong body of cavalry moving towards them, which was not the fact.

Second.—In having at a later period of the retreat, when commanding his regiment, among which were the Guides, upon whom the retreating force depended for the direction of the night-march, marched away to Ata Karez, and for the time abandoned the wounded and tired men; so that he, with his regiment, reached Ata Karez some two hours before the rear guard, although he had been ordered by Brig

been last seen alive going in the direction of the Sikkal Tank, and on his not returning home in due course a search was made in and about the tank, when some traces of what appeared to be blood were discovered, as well as a track, as of something having been dragged along the ground. Further search brought to light some pieces of goat's or sheep's flesh, and on a subsequent occasion the discovery of the lad's body was found immersed in a spot where there was about five feet of water. The body having been identified was sent to Ramnad, where the medical officer, by whom it was examined, stated that death had been caused by a heavy blow behind the ear, the marks of which were apparent. The evidence of several witnesses who were examined showed that the prisoner and others had been engaged in repairing the tank bund, and that the boy came across them just as they were cutting up the carcase of a sheep, and accused them of having made away with the nursing member of his flock. The 1st prisoner unfortunately found a weapon at hand in the shape of a mamatty, with which he killed Sattappan on the spot, and the 2nd and 3rd prisoners aided him in disposing of the dead body, which they did by throwing it into the tank bed, in a place where the water was deep enough to hide it from sight. The assessors were for bringing in a verdict of not guilty against the 1st prisoner, but the circumstances being proved to the satisfaction of the Court, and indeed partly admitted by the prisoners themselves, the Sessions Judge found the 1st prisoner guilty of murder, and sentenced him to transportation for life, and the 3rd and 4th guilty of causing the disappearance of evidence of murder for which offence he passed upon them a sentence of rigorous imprisonment for four years.—Mail.

THE PEACE NEGOCIATIONS WITH THE BOERS.

INTERVIEW WITH MR. JOUBERT.

THE Daily News' Special Correspondent telegraphed from Mount Prospect, March 11 :—

On Thursday, at four o'clock in the afternoon, I had an interview with Mr. Joubert outside the Boer camp. He freely declared his views on the subject of the Transvaal.

Mr. Joubert blamed Sir T. Shepstone for having consistently misrepresented and falsified the condition of things in the Transvaal before the annexation, and said that the Colonial Government turned a deaf ear to all proofs of the true state of things. Since the annexation the Boers had never been recognized in their own country, they had been trodden down beneath a military despotism. Sir Garnet Wolseley he blamed for disregarding public feelings, and sending false statements of the same home in spite of the protests of Mr. Joubert, who asked for public meetings in order to be allowed to get at the feeling of the Boers respecting annexation. He was told that no seditious meetings would be allowed. Mr. Joubert was sure that had his advice been followed by Sir Garnet Wolseley, public meetings held, and resolutions passed, the English Government would not have persisted in the annexation.

Since the annexation took place the Boers had made every effort to get a hearing of the true state of matters. They sent deputations to England, but were throughout discredited. No proofs would induce the English Government to give credence to any but the false statements of the governing officers. After great patience and constitutional agitation, the Boers took up arms and proclaimed their independence, feeling then confident that when the British saw how universally this was desired, they would permit it without bloodshed. A body of Boers were sent to Potchefstroom to print a proclamation and instructed to be quite peaceful ; but to get the proclamation printed and return to Mr. Joubert. At Potchefstroom these men were fired on by the English troops, by order of Sir William Lanyon, although letters had been sent to every town, and to Sir William Lanyon announcing their pacific intentions.

The firing on the Boers at Potchefstroom Mr. Joubert considered a declaration of war. Messages to that effect were sent to all the troops on the roads and to all the towns by post-cart, and a party was also sent to meet Colonel Anstruther and the 94th, instructed carefully to be peaceful and deliver his letter, explaining to the troops that war had been proclaimed, in case they had not heard it already, and that they must return. Mr. Joubert said he could not allow the troops to concentrate in every town against him. He declared that his instructions were carried out. The troops, when met, were handed papers explaining that they were requested to return with their arms and colours, and not persist in their journey. The officer refusing was given ten minutes to consider. Then, after his refusal, ten more minutes to prepare. Then, on the flag of truce being lowered, firing commenced. Mr. Joubert declared that if Bronker's Spruit was a massacre, or an unfair fight, then he alone was responsible.

The Lambet and Elliott affair he declared a murder, and said he was most anxious to bring the delinquents to justice.

Mr. Joubert declared that the universal feeling in the Transvaal at present was the desire to be free. He agreed to the English flag being hoisted if required once yearly, and to an English residential political officer being placed with the Transvaal Government ; the English officer to legislate on all native questions ; all land and frontier questions to be referred to the English Colonial Government. The independent Transvaal people as such would assist the general welfare of the whole of South Africa, and would be ready to meet the English Government in every proposition, except that of being annexed. Should any scheme for a confederation be proposed the Transvaal Republic would be quite ready to join in it, if it were the general desire and agreement of all the other South African Colonies.

Throughout Mr. Jourbert declared that the Boer people had always desired an English protectorate and no other. Annexation was not and is not understood by the universal opinion of the Dutch in the Transvaal, except as a breach of all the conventions and a breach of faith on the part of the English Government. All the statements made by the English representative officers of the annexation being desired by any section of the community he declared to be false. Those Boers who signed the documents for Sir T. Shepstone in connection with the annexation question, did so from a false translation of what they were signing.

Much as all this bloodshed was regretted by the Boer people, they were as ready as he was to come to any arrangement which did not include annexation. The military despotism under which they had been held for the last two years had determined them to fight to the last rather than submit to being annexed. Mr. Joubert reiterated earnestly that every fight they win, makes them all sadder, not exultant. He was ready, he said, to make every possible concession for the sake of peace, but he would lay down his life for the independence and freedom of his country, and would consider no terms of peace which included the annexation of the Transvaal.

Mr. Joubert thinks that if war ceases negotiations a settlement might be arrived at by the annexation of the portion of the Transvaal on this side the Vaal River, giving the Boers the Republic on the other side the Vaal, the British Government to be recouped for the war expenses by this additional territory.

MR. G. S. MILL ON IRELAND.

An experienced and highly-trained observer of political society wrote a pamphlet on England and Ireland in those days (about 1868), which has this week been reprinted and again offered to the attention of the public. The two-score pages in which Mr. Mill gave his ideas on the Irish question were the object of much sharp criticism in 1868, and they produced no wide general effect on opinion. They were no doubt before their time, and it may prove that they are so still ; but they are at least nearer to their time by exactly twelve years. "Once at least in every generation," Mr. Mill began, "the question, What is to be done with Ireland ? rises again to perplex the councils and disturb the conscience of the British nation. It has now risen more formidable than ever, and with the further aggravation that it was unexpected." It will not be denied that the perplexity of the Irish Question in 1881 is more formidable than it was in 1868 ; and a man must be very sanguine who makes sure within himself that it will not be still more formidable before the end of this decade. Mr. Mill foresaw more than one of the main reasons why this should be so. He perceived the forces that were hardening the indignation in Ireland against particular wrongs into a resolution not to be ruled on any terms by the authors of those wrongs, and he made on this the just remark that "rebellions are never really unconquerable until they have become rebellions for an idea. Revolt against practical illusage may be quelled by concessions ; but wait till all practical grievances have merged in the demand for independence, and there is no knowing that any concession, short of independence, will appease the quarrel." Besides this moral or sentimental reason for disaffection Mr. Mill realised the positive forces that were relieving the Irish from being "reduced to take anything that they could get." They have acquired, he said, "the sense of being supported by prosperous multitudes of their countrymen on the opposite side of the Atlantic," who would furnish "the leaders, the resources, the skill, the military discipline, and a great part of the effective force in any future Irish rebellion." To this has been added, since Mr. Mill's time (for Mr. Parnell only came into Parliament six years ago), the incentive furnished by the rise of a deliberately-formed party of Irish Irreconcilables in Parliament. Though Mr. Mill perceived clearly what forces were making for the growth and strengthening of disaffection, he was careful to cut himself off from sympathy with the cause of Irish independence. He could not regard, he said, "either an absolute or a qualified separation otherwise than as a dishonour to one, and a serious misfortune to both." . . . What was the alternative which Mr. Mill preferred ? No accommodation, he said, is henceforth possible which does not give the Irish peasant permanent possession of the land, subject to fixed burthens. It is not necessary that the change should be violent, still less that it should be unjust. "It may and it ought to respect existing pecuniary interests which have the sanction of law. An equivalent ought to be given for the bare pecuniary value of all mischievous rights which landlords or any others are required to part with. But no mercy ought to be shown to the mischievous rights themselves ; no scruples of purely English birth ought to stay our hands from effecting, since that has come to that, a real revolution in the economical and social constitution of Ireland. In the completeness of the revolution will lie its safety." This was before the Act of 1870. That Act, as we all know, went a considerable way towards laying down the principles that ought to guide this great social and economical change. But it destroyed rather than built up. What we have now to do is to reconstruct, and we can only reconstruct safely by establishing such a social and economic order as shall interest the greatest possible number in its conservation.—Pall Mall Gazette.

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT (trade-mark "Anti-Fat" registered) is the celebrated remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable, being a compound concentrated fluid extract of sea lichens, and is perfectly harmless. No particular change of diet required. Will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 lbs. a week. It acts upon the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. "Corpulency is not only a disease of itself, but the harbinger of others," wrote Hippocrates two thousand years ago, and what was true then is not less so to-day. The consequences of obesity are often more serious than is generally supposed. Obesity is undoubtedly a not infrequent cause of fatty degeneration of the heart and liver. Speaking of the heart, a late author says : "Some of the instances of sudden death of fat people may be reasonably ascribed to a rupture of the organ in this weakened state." Anti-Fat sold by all Chemists. BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., Prop'rs., 493, Oxford Street, London, England. Agents for the Bombay Presidency, TREACHER AND CO.
